The Hudson Café

Founded in 2011, The Hudson Café was born in the heart of Detroit just before the city's much-publicized revival began. Located on Woodward Avenue between Grand River and State Street, its name is a nod to the iconic Hudson's department store, which was located directly across the street. The expansive menu has something for everyone, from the famous Hudson salad to a heaping stack of chunky monkey pancakes. In February 2023, the Hudson Café will be expanding to Northville, Michigan. Visit the new location for a unique twist on your classic favorites! The Northville location will also feature the restaurant's coveted Brunch Cocktail Menu as well as a banquet room with its own private entrance for larger parties. The new location as well as the downtown location were beautifully designed by Olin Interior Design, constructed by Windy City Construction, and brokered by ICONIC Realty. Be sure to check out all of their handy work!
